THE MANAGER

EDWARD MICHAEL (EDDIE) KASKO. Born: June 27, 1931, Linden, N. J. Ht.: 6′; Wt.: 185 lbs. Brown eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Richmond, Va. Married Catherine Bache, February 15, 1958. Children: Michael 8/10/59, James 4/30/63. Acquired by Red Sox, April 3, 1966 for Felix Mantilla from Houston.

Eddie is the 26th man to begin a season as Red Sox manager. He succeeded Dick Williams for the 1970 season, after three years of managing the Red Sox triple A teams. He finished sixth with Toronto in 1967, sixth with Louisville in 1968, second with Louisville in 1969, and third with Boston in 1970.

Eddie first joined the Red Sox organization as a utility infielder in 1966, after nine seasons with the St. Louis Cardinals, Cincinnati Reds and the Houston Astros.

His best years were with the Reds as their Most Valuable Player in 1960, and he helped lead Cincinnati to the National League pennant the following year. He became Houston's first captain in 1965.

Kasko first broke into organized baseball in 1949 with Baltimore of the International League, following graduation from Linden High School in 1948. After six minor league seasons, interrupted by two years as a combat engineer in the U. S. Army, he came up to the Majors to stay with St. Louis in 1957.

THE COACHES

EDWARD J. (EDDIE) POPOWSKI. Born: Aug. 20, 1913 at Sayreville, N. J. Ht.: 5′4″; Wt.: 155 lbs. Bats and Throws: Right. Married Mary Joan Howley, Dec. 26, 1941. Children: Carole 4/7/43, Terry 7/22/45, Rickey 9/15/52, Randy 8/8/54, Sherry 9/10/57.

The senior member of the coaching staff, entering his fifth season as the Red Sox third base coach, after spending over 30 years in the Red Sox organization as second baseman, scout, manager and coach. In 21 years of minor league managing, "Pop's" clubs finished out of the first division only seven times and he directed four pennant winners, the latest in 1965 when he led Pittsfield to the Eastern League crown. For several years prior to becoming a coach he managed the Red Sox entry in the Florida Instructional League and spent time as an instructor there last fall.

HARVEY (KITTEN) HADDIX, JR. Born: Sept. 18, 1925, Medway, Ohio. Ht.: 5′9″; Wt.: 155 lbs. Bats and Throws: Left. Brown hair, Blue eyes. Home: South Vienna, Ohio. Married Marcia Williamson, Dec. 10, 1955. Children: Teri 12/1/57, Ann 1/12/61, Harvey III 8/5/64.

Newest member of the coaching staff, succeeding Charlie Wagner, who returned to the Red Sox scouting staff after one year as pitching coach.

In his 14-year career, from 1952 through 1965, with the Cardinals, Phillies, Reds, Pirates and Orioles, Harvey compiled a record of 136 wins and 113 losses. He pitched a 12-inning perfect game for the Pirates against the Braves on May 26, 1959, only to lose 1-0 on one hit in the 13th inning. He established a major league record by retiring those 36 consecutive batters.

He served as pitching coach for the Mets in 1966 and 1967, and for Cincinnati in 1969. In 1968 and 1970, he was the minor league pitching coach for the Pirates.

Other career highlights include a 20-9 season with St. Louis in 1953 and two wins for the Pirates in the 1960 World Series. He became a full-time reliever in 1963, after 11 years as a starter.

DONALD EUGENE (DON) LENHARDT. Born: Oct. 4, 1922 at Alton, Ill. Ht.: 6′3″; Wt.: 190. Green eyes, Blond hair. Home: St. Louis, Mo. Married Isabel Fracchia, Oct. 27, 1951. Children: Patricia Ann, 10/7/52.

Returning for his second year as first base coach and batting instructor, Don had been a Red Sox scout in Missouri, Illinois and Iowa since 1957. After Navy service in World War II, he played five years in the majors as an outfielder, first baseman and third baseman with the St. Louis Browns, White Sox and the Red Sox. He finished his active playing career in the Red Sox system with San Francisco in 1956.

In addition to his scouting duties Don had served as a batting instructor in all Red Sox minor league camps in Ocala from 1961 to 1969 and coached for several years with the Red Sox instructional teams. He was a lifetime .271 hitter, with 61 home runs and 239 runs batted in.

DOUGLAS JOSEPH (DOUG) CAMILLI. Born: Sept. 22, 1936, Philadelphia, Pa. Ht.: 5′11″; Wt.: 190 lbs. Brown eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Winter Haven, Fla. Married Marilyn Mumm, Oct. 19, 1963. Children: Kevin 6/30/64, Jeffrey 7/10/66, Michael 7/25/67.

Doug, one of four Camilli brothers who played professional baseball, returns for his second year as Red Sox bullpen coach. His dad, Dolph, starred for many years with the Phillies and the Dodgers, and finished his major league career with the Red Sox in 1945.

Before coming to Boston, Doug had served as Washington bullpen coach for two seasons, after completing an eight-year major league career. He originally signed with the Dodgers out of Stanford in 1957 and highlighted a five-year stay with the Dodgers by catching a Sandy Koufax no-hitter in Philadelphia on June 4, 1964.

PLAYER RECORDS

APARICIO, Luis Ernesto (Luis) — SHORTSTOP

Born: April 29, 1934, Maracaibo, Venezuela. Ht.: 5′8″; Wt. 155 lbs. Blue eyes. Black hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Maracaibo, Venezuela. Married Sonia M. Llorente; children: Louis 5/24/57, Sonia 6/29/58, Sharon 11/24/60, Karen 6/14/64, Nelson 11/3/65.

This amazing veteran comes to the Red Sox in his 16th American League season after his best year ever as a hitter with the White Sox and after establishing himself as the most durable shortstop in the history of the game. In 1970, he not only had a career batting high of .313 but eclipsed Luke Appling's record of 2,218 games played at shortstop, and led the White Sox in doubles (29), runs scored (86), hits (173) and sacrifices (10).

Few players can approach his fielding accomplishments. He has tied major league records for leading American League shortstops in fielding eight consecutive years and in assists seven times. He has led in put-outs four times and seven times in chances accepted.

Luis has been the league's Gold Glove shortstop nine times — every even year since 1958, along with 1959 and 1961.

Aparicio has led the league shortstops in games played five times, averaging 149 games a year for his 15 seasons. He established an American League record — and tied Max Carey's major league mark — by leading the circuit in stolen bases nine times, all in a row from 1956 through 1964.

He was a member of the American League All-Star teams eight years — 1958 through 1964 and 1970. He appeared in two World Series, with the White Sox in 1959 and Baltimore in 1966. His late father was a great shortstop in Venezuela.

BOLIN, Bobby Donald (Bob) PITCHER

Born: October 29, 1939 at Smyrna, S. C. Ht.: 6′4″; Wt.: 212 lbs. Blue eyes, Blond hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Atherton, Calif. Married Irene White. children: Donna 7/13/64; Brettly 9/14/66.

He had an impressive break-in with the Red Sox in September, pitching shutout ball in eight innings in six relief appearances, after being used as both a starter and reliever with the Brewers. Milwaukee obtained him from San Francisco in December, 1969 for outfielders Steve Whitaker and Dick Simpson. He had filled both roles as a starter and reliever for the Giants during nine major league seasons, highlighted by a 14-6 record mostly as a reliever in 1965. He was 10-5 with a 1.98 ERA with the Giants in 1968. He'll be primarily a relief pitcher with the Red Sox.

Bobby played baseball, basketball and football at Hickory Grove, S. C. High School and pitched four no-hitters in his senior year of 1956, before signing with the Pirates. He was later declared a free agent and signed with the Giants. In his best minor league year 20-8 in 1959, he struck out 22 in one game.

BRETT, Kenneth A. (Ken) PITCHER

Born: Sept. 18, 1948, Brooklyn, N. Y. Ht.: 5′11″; Wt.: 195 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Left. Home: El Segundo, Calif. Signed by scout Joe Stephenson, June 29, 1966. Single.

After his first full major league season in 1970, all observers agree that Ken, the Red Sox number one draft choice in 1966, is about ready to establish himself as a major league winner and future star. After appearing in a career high of 41 games last season, he went on to impress with his work in the Puerto Rican winter league, and should be included in the starting rotation in 1971.

As his figures show, he has averaged a strikeout an inning with the Red Sox, and has steadily improved his control. A good hitting pitcher — 16 for 51, .314 with 3 homers — he has helped himself with his bat on more than one occasion and needs only a little more experience to rank among the best in the league.

Ken broke in with the Red Sox in the waning days of the 1967 pennant year, and with less than two years of professional experience, impressed in the World Series at the tender age of 19. He had pitched on championship Little League, Babe Ruth League (including the 1964 national champions from El Segundo) and high school teams before signing.

CONIGLIARO, William M. (Billy) — OUTFIELDER

Born: Aug. 15, 1947, Revere, Mass. Ht.: 6′; Wt.: 190 lbs. Brown eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Brookline, Mass. Signed by Scout Milt Bolling after being selected as the Red Sox number one choice in the first free agent draft, June, 1965. Single.

With his brother's trade, Billy will move to center field for the Red Sox in 1971, with Reggie Smith moving to right. Faster than his older brother, he also has more range in the field and a better throwing arm, and observers look for continuous improvement in his hitting. He did hit a solid .271 with 18 homers in his first full major league season.

He was an outstanding football player at Swampscott High and turned down several attractive college offers for baseball. He is an avid amateur astronomer and photographer, and also a student pilot.

CULP, Raymond Leonard, Jr. (Ray) — PITCHER

Born: August 6, 1941, Elgin, Tex. Ht.: 6′; Wt.: 197 lbs.; Blue eyes, Brown hair; Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Austin, Tex. Married Sharon Lee Mullins. Children: Mitzi 7/18/64, Sherri 12/7/66, Tammi 3/30/70.

He led all Red Sox pitchers for the third year in a row, and lost at least four more wins because of sloppy defense behind him. His career high of 197 strikeouts ranked him fourth in the league behind Sam McDowell, Jim Palmer and Bob Johnson. First player to win the Boston Baseball Writers' Most Valuable Pitcher Award three times, and his acquisition stands as possibly the best Red Sox deal ever.

Ray is one of the few players in the game to be an All-Star selection in both leagues, and with an improved Red Sox defense he could crack the 20 game ranks in 1971.

He in an off-season real estate man and operates a small ranch in his native Austin, Texas, where he starred in football, track and baseball at Austin High before signing with the Phillies.

CURTIS, John Duffield II (Jack) — PITCHER

Born: March 9, 1948, Newton, Mass. Ht.: 6′1″; Wt.: 175 lbs.; Brown eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Left. Home: Piedmont, S. C. Acquired: Signed by Scout "Bots" Nekola, after Red Sox chose him number one in the free agent draft of June, 1968. Married Brenda Lee Pepple.

Definitely moving up the ladder, and probably needs only one more minor league season to come to Fenway Park to stay. Jack gave up a grand slam homer which marred his surprise brief appearance with the Red Sox in 1970, when he was recalled for 11 days when military duties depleted the Boston staff.

A standout at Smithtown Central High, he was Cleveland's number one selection in the June draft of 1966. He elected to go to Clemson University where he was undefeated as a freshman and pitched three no-hitters. Starred briefly in the Cape Cod League in 1967 before joining the U. S. Pan American team, where he became the first U. S. pitcher to defeat Cuba and the U. S. team won the gold medal for the first time.

Signed with the Red Sox after his sophomore year at Clemson, where he earned his degree this winter as an English major.

FIORE, Michael Gary (Mike) — FIRST BASEMAN

Born: Oct. 11, 1944, Brooklyn, N. Y. Ht.: 6′; Wt.: 185 lbs. Hazel eyes, Light Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Left. Home: Malverne, N. Y. Married Camille Santoro.

Although he had been the Royals' regular first baseman in 1969, he saw only limited action with the Royals and Red Sox in 1970 as a pinch hitter and late inning fill-in at first. He had fine minor league credentials in the Baltimore system which caused Kansas City to make him their second selection in the expansion draft, and he will duel Tony Muser for the backup first base job in 1971.

Mike was originally signed by the New York Mets, but Baltimore got him in the first year draft. He has a good eye, surprising power and is an excellent glove man. In three minor league seasons (1964, 1965 and 1968) he led all league first basemen in fielding. He is a department store supervisor on Long Island in the winter.

Born: Dec. 26, 1947, Bellows Falls, Vt. Ht.: 6′2″; Wt.: 205 lbs. Hazel eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Charlestown, N. H. Signed in February, 1967, after being Red Sox number one selection in winter draft. Married Linda Lee Foust. Children: Carlyn 9/26/70.

He got off to a fine start with Pawtucket but wound up with a disappointing season, and will have to battle back to contend as one of the Red Sox catchers of the future. He has the tools, and made a good first impression in Winter Haven in the spring of 1969.

Carlton, known as "Pudgy" since childhood, was MVP in baseball, basketball and soccer at Charlestown, N. H. High and starred in basketball at the Univ. of New Hampshire before signing. His older brother, Calvin, is in the Baltimore system.

GARMAN, Michael D. (Mike) — PITCHER

Born: Sept. 16, 1949, Caldwell, Idaho. Ht.: 6′3″; Wt.: 198 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Wilder, Idaho. Signed by Scout Earl Johnson after being the Red Sox number one draft selection in June, 1967. Married Linda Lee Lanfear. Children: Greg 4/20/67.

He is getting closer and closer to the major leagues and needs only a little more maturity and improved control to move up. All observers agree that Mike has a major league fast ball and a good curve, and he made an outstanding impression with a win over the Yankees in September of 1969. He worked hard last fall in the Instructional League to improve his control.

Before signing, he was not only MVP in baseball at Caldwell High, but also was an All-State selection in football and basketball. His dad played with the Pirates and his brother is in the San Francisco Giants system.

GRIFFIN, Douglas Lee, Jr. (Doug) INFIELDER

Born: June 4, 1947, South Gate, Cal. Ht.: 6′; Wt.: 160 lbs. Green eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: La Puente, Calif. Married Nancy Lynn Harp. Children: Natalie 3/16/69.

Although he will be under considerable pressure as a rookie breaking into the Red Sox lineup at second base, all observers who saw him hit — .326 and Pacific Coast League stolen base leader with 35 for the champion Hawaii team last year — rate him as "can't miss."

As a fielder, Doug is favorably compared with such standouts as Bobby Knoop and Bill Mazeroski, and with the veteran Luis Aparicio at shortstop, many think the Red Sox may have the best defensive second base combination in the league.

A four-letter man at El Monte High, he signed with the Angels after graduation in 1965, and served in the Navy in 1967 and 1968. In those years he helped lead the Honolulu Islanders to Hawaii semi-pro championships and berths in the National Baseball Congress tournament in Wichita, where they finished second in 1967.

KENNEDY, John Edward (Red) INFIELDER

Born: May 29, 1941, Chicago, Ill. Ht.: 6′; Wt.: 185 lbs. Hazel eyes, Red hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Chicago, Ill. Married Betty Jayne Brown. Children: Scott 9/10/64, Kristen 10/2/68.

He did an excellent job filling in at third base and shortstop after coming over from Milwaukee, and will be the top utility infielder on the bench in 1971.

John was a three-year standout in football, basketball and baseball at Harper High of Chicago, before signing with the Washington Senators in 1961. Following the 1964 season, he was involved in the deal which brought Frank Howard to Washington from the Dodgers, and he played with the Dodgers in 1965 and 1966, including the World Series of 1965 and 1966. Later saw service with the Yankees and Seattle.

He hit a home run his first time at bat in the major leagues for Washington in September, 1962, and on July 5, 1970, in his first time at bat for the Red Sox, hit an inside the park homer to spark a Red Sox rally to defeat Cleveland.

KOONCE, Calvin Lee, Jr. (Cal) PITCHER

Born: Nov. 18, 1940, Fayetteville, N. C. Ht.: 6′; Wt.: 195. Blue Eyes, Light Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Hope Mills, N. C. Married Peggy Jean Davis. Children: Christopher 10/1/62, Kimberly 4/27/64, Kelly 11/7/68.

He credits Red Sox trainer Buddy LeRoux with correcting arm problems which had bothered him in the final weeks of 1969 with the Mets and in the early going of 1970. Once straightened out, he did a good job as both a starter and reliever for Boston, but will likely go back to full-time relieving in 1971.

Cal signed with the Cubs after earning All-America Junior College honors with Campbell (N. C.) College, and after several seasons with Chicago, he was sold to the Mets in 1967. With the World Champion Mets of 1969, he had seven saves to go with his six victories.

One of baseball's better golfers, he operates his own insurance and investment agency in North Carolina in the off-season.

LAHOUD, Joseph M., Jr. (Joe) OUTFIELDER

Born: April 14, 1947, Danbury, Conn. Ht.: 6′; Wt.: 198 lbs. Brown eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Left. Home: Danbury, Conn. Signed by Scout "Bots" Nekola, September, 1965. Single.

After a frustrating season of 1969, spent mostly on the Red Sox bench, he went back to Louisville last year and had his best season ever in organized baseball. He'll be ready to step in this season if any of the outfielders should falter or get injured and gives the club a powerful left-handed bat coming off the bench.

Joe has all the tools, good throwing arm, surprising speed, despite flat feet and a cranky ankle, and good power. He captained the baseball, basketball and soccer teams at Henry Abbott Tech in Danbury and played basketball at New Haven College before signing.

He left for military duty on June 5, 1970 and lost the rest of the season, but later pitched excellent ball in the Puerto Rican winter league when he was involved in an altercation with Ellie Rodriguez of the Kansas City Royals and gave up winter baseball.

He was a standout with the University of Southern California NCAA champions of 1968, with two wins on consecutive days in the college world series. Through high school, he had also been a first baseman but concentrated on pitching in college.

LONBORG, James R. (Jim) PITCHER

Born: April 16, 1943, Santa Maria, Calif. Ht.: 6'5"; Wt.: 210 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Boston, Mass. Married Rosemary Feeney. Signed by Scout Danny Doyle, Aug. 14, 1963.

The Red Sox keep hoping that Jim will fashion the kind of comeback which Jim Palmer of the Orioles did so successfully, and that Lonny can somehow regain his 1967 effectiveness when he was a runaway winner of the Cy Young award and had two great World Series victories.

Since his well-known skiing accident of December, 1967, he has shown streaks of the old magic but a succession of injuries and arm problems have kept him inconsistent. He impressed in spring training of 1970, but arm problems practically wiped out the season. He tried again this winter in Puerto Rico, and the reports have been mixed, so spring training will probably determine his future.

Ironically, he and Palmer both signed out of the Basin League and began their professional careers in 1964, after Lonny's junior year at Stanford.

Despite 20 saves, the 1970 season was a disappointing one for Sparky. He had six saves in April, but struggled through the middle months. He seemed to recapture his stuff late in the season, and after a winter of tough conditioning work, is determined to regain his place as one of the best short left-handed relievers in the game. Over three and a half major league seasons, he now shows 47 saves.

He played only football and basketball at Reynoldsville (Pa.) High because his school had no baseball team. Baltimore signed him after he struck out 31 men in a 17-inning sandlot game, and the Red Sox got him in the first year draft.

Born: March 27, 1950, Monroe, La. Ht.: 6′2″; Wt.: 185 lbs. Brown eyes, Black hair. Bats: Left. Throws: Right. Home: Simsboro, La. Signed by Scout Ed Scott after free agent draft of June, 1968. Wife's name: Marilyn Sue. Children: Terry 9/9/69.

He will get a lot of attention in spring training and some observers believe he may be up with the Red Sox before the season is over, after more seasoning at Louisville. In his second 15-win season in a row, he not only led the Carolina League in victories, but also in strikeouts, complete games, innings pitched and tied for lead in shutouts with five, and games started, 29. For the second straight year he impressed in the instructional league.

Lynn was the Red Sox number three selection in the draft of June, 1968, after earning 16 letters at Grambling High in baseball, football, basketball and tennis, including being an All-State defensive back in football.

Born: Jan. 29, 1945, Boston, Mass. Ht.: 6′3″; Wt.: 199 lbs. Hazel eyes, Blond hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: East Weymouth, Mass. Signed by farm director Ed Kenney after free agent draft of 1966. Scouted by Don Lenhardt. Single.

He made a good comeback from the arm problems that hampered him in 1969 and worked a career high 153 innings for Louisville, plus a couple of brief outings for the Red Sox in September last year. This will be his third bid to make the parent club.

Dick has shown major league ability with a good fast ball, improved curve and control, but needs more consistency to be a major league winner. He starred in baseball and basketball at Thayer Academy, before attending Parsons College. He signed after his junior year in college and later obtained his degree. He is involved in physical fitness work in the off season.

He gets the nod as the Red Sox number one catcher for 1971 after his best season of nine minor league years in 1970 and a tough September test with the Red Sox last September. He was the International League All-Star catcher for the second year in a row with a .324 batting average.

The Red Sox converted Bob to catching, although all his prior amateur experience had been as a pitcher, outfielder and first baseman and he has worked hard for his chance. He starred in baseball, football and basketball at Central High of Nashville before signing. He is a pilot and played ball in the Dominican Republic this past winter.

DID YOU KNOW?

The Red Sox won 12 of their last 14 games in 1970 to finish with their second straight 87-75 record. It is interesting that during that closing stretch, although they gained 8½ games on Detroit to vault past the Tigers into third place, they gained only two games on the second place Yankees and a half-game on the champion Orioles.

Another youngster who will get a lot of attention in spring training as he gets closer and closer to the major leagues. The top southpaw in the Eastern League last year, he was very impressive in a few outings with the Red Sox in September and worked on his control in the Puerto Rican winter league.

Julito, tall and wiry, has a good moving fast ball and sharp breaking curve, and needs only improved control to come up to stay. He starred at Rafael Landron High before signing.

MUSER, Anthony J. (Tony) — FIRST BASEMAN

Born: Aug. 1, 1947, Hollywood, Calif. Ht.: 6′2″. Wt.: 200 lbs. Green eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Left. Home: San Diego, Calif. Signed by Scout Ray Boone, May, 1967. Married Nancy Jean Bumcrot. Children: Tony Jr. 3/21/70.

He will be battling for the backup first baseman's job after his second solid season in triple A, when he was the leading fielder in the International League. A line drive hitter who runs well, Tony shows surprising power at times.

He was an All-Star and MVP in every level of baseball before signing, including being the Most Valuable Player in the 1965 Connie Mack World Series, batting champion and MVP at Lakewood High in San Diego and also MVP for San Diego Mesa Junior College.

NAGY, Michael (Mike) — PITCHER

Born: March 25, 1948, New York City, N. Y. Ht.: 6′3″; Wt.: 200 lbs. Green eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Bronx, N. Y. Signed by Scout "Bots" Nekola after free agent draft of June, 1966. Married Barbara Mary Nagy.

Military service and marriage delayed his start in 1970 and he never did quite get back to his 1969 performance, when he had the best winning percentage in baseball, and was second choice as "Rookie of the Year" in the American League.

If he is right for 1971, he will be a definite starter behind veterans Culp, Siebert and Peters. Mike has been charmed in another way — in 48 major league starts in two years for the Red Sox, the club has won 32 games. A good competitor on the mound, he has a good fast ball and curve. He grew up near Yankee Stadium and played all sports at St. Helena High.

Another youngster gradually climbing in the system who will need more minor league seasoning. Ben has good speed and hit well in the Florida Instructional League after a so-so Eastern League campaign.

A native of Panama, he played first base and starred in soccer for Theodore Roosevelt High in New York before signing. The Red Sox converted him to the outfield.

He attends Bronx Community College in the off season.

PAVLETICH, Donald Stephen (Don) — CATCHER

Born: July 13, 1938, Milwaukee, Wis. Ht.: 5'11"; Wt.: 211 lbs. Brown eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: West Allis, Wisconsin. Married Dolores Wilhelm. Children: Diane 7/18/60, Dean 8/19/61, Denice 5/30/64, Dan 9/23/68.

Veteran catcher, who can also fill in at first base, he saw very limited action in 1970, but will be ready to step in if Montgomery falters. Don has always had a good batting average against lefthanders, and should see more pinch hit duty in 1971.

He also played football and basketball at Nathan Hale High of West Allis, Wisconsin before signing with the Cincinnati Reds. A salesman for a trucking firm in the off season.

PETERS, Gary Charles (Gary) — PITCHER

Born: April 21, 1937, Grove City, Pa. Ht.: 6'2"; Wt.: 197 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Left. Home: Sarasota, Fla. Married Jean Ann Jackal. Children: Kelly 9/26/58, Susan 11/19/59.

He had a rather unusual season in 1970, his first with the Red Sox. After a sensational spring training campaign (no earned runs in 32 innings), and a 3-1 April record, he ran into all kinds of early inning difficulties in May, when he was 0-5, and then from June 16th on, his record was 13-4, best on the club over that stretch.

Gary came to the Red Sox after a great career from 1963 through 1969 with the White Sox, during which he was Rookie of the Year in 1963, an All-Star in 1964 and 1967, and tied a White Sox record with 11 straight wins in 1963. One of the best hitting pitchers in the game, he was strictly a first baseman before becoming a professional.

He is now the Red Sox player representative, as he was with the White Sox. At Mercer High in Pennsylvania he was All State in basketball and attended Grove City College after signing.

PETROCELLI, Americo P. (Rico) INFIELDER

Born: June 27, 1943, Brooklyn, N. Y. Ht.: 6′: Wt.: 185 lbs. Brown eyes and hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Lynnfield, Mass. Signed by Scout Bots Nekola, July 2, 1961. Married Elsie Jensen. Children: Michael 2/7/66, Jimmy and Billy 6/7/67, Danny 8/5/69.

With the arrival of Aparicio, Rico will move to third base in 1971, and will work under Red Sox all-time third baseman Frank Malzone in spring training. All observers feel he will have little difficulty making the transition because of his great hands and reflexes.

He followed his best season ever of 1969 with another solid hitting campaign in 1970 with a career high of 103 RBI's, second on the club. He avoided injuries again and had a career high of 157 games. His 40 home runs in 1969 broke a 20-year American League record for round trippers for a shortstop, and he also finished second in slugging average in the league, highest ever attained by a shortstop. Again in 1970, he was among the league's top sluggers.

Rico as an All-Scholastic in both basketball and baseball at Sheepshead Bay (N.Y.) High before signing.

ROMO, Vicente (Huevo) PITCHER

Born: May 21, 1943, Santa Rosalia, Mexico. Ht.: 6′1″; Wt.: 195 lbs. Brown eyes, Black hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Sonora, Mexico. Wife's name: Magdalena. Children: Dora 5, Vicente 2½.

The Red Sox are looking for a much improved season from Vicente, after a winter in which he was the top pitcher in the Mexican winter league and included a perfect game. Although his 1970 overall Red Sox record was better, he wasn't as successful as a starter as he had been in 1969, when he had a 5-2 starting record. Plans call for him to be strictly a long-reliever in 1971.

He is one of the few successful graduates of the Mexican League, and most of his major league success with Cleveland and Boston has been as a reliever. He now shows 23 saves in three years in the majors.

SATRIANO, Thomas Victor (Satch) — CATCHER

Born: August 28, 1940, Pittsburgh, Pa. Ht.: 6'1"; Wt.: 195 lbs. Brown eyes, Black hair. Bats: Left. Throws: Right. Home: Woodland Hills, Calif. Married Sherry Mastrippolito. Children: Gina 12/27/65, Lisa 9/3/67, Nick 3/24/70.

Although he played all over the diamond in his seven years with the Angels, he has been strictly a catcher for the Red Sox, with considerable work last year behind the plate when Sonny Siebert pitched. He will probably see more action in 1971 against right handed pitching, as the only left-handed hitting receiver.

"Satch," as a third baseman, set a record with 10 hits in five games for the 1961 College World Series champion Trojans of Southern California, and later obtained his degree in business from USC in 1968. An off-season cost accountant.

SCOTT, George C., Jr. (Boomer) — INFIELDER

Born: March 23, 1944, Greenville, Miss. Ht.: 6'2"; Wt.: 215 lbs. Black eyes, Black hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Dedham, Mass. Signed by Scout Ed Scott with an assist from Milt Bolling, May, 1964. Married Malvena "Lucky" Pena. Children: George 6/20/69.

Even though he missed a month of the 1970 season with a broken bone in his hand, he still continued his comeback from a disastrous 1968 season, as he equalled his 1969 homerun production of 16 and increased his RBI's in 25 fewer games. Under spring training plans, "Boomer" will move back to first base where he was a Gold Glove winner in 1967 and 1968, and where he ranks among the game's greatest fielders. He played most of 1970 at third.

An all-sport star at Coleman High of Greenville, with his tremendous strength and coordination it's likely that he could have starred in professional football or basketball. Highlights of his baseball career to date have been in 1965, when he led the Pittsfield Red Sox to the Eastern League title and was a unanimous MVP choice, and in 1967, when he was a big factor in the Red Sox pennant drive.

SIEBERT, Wilfred Charles (Sonny) PITCHER

Born: January 14, 1937, St. Mary's, Mo. Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 205 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: St. Louis, Mo. Married Carol Ann Buckner. Children: Sandi 8/3/59, Scott 10/20/60, Steve 3/14/69.

Where he had relieved frequently in 1969, he was strictly a starter in 1970, and turned in some great efforts. The best was a one-hitter over the Angels on July 31, the only hit a ground ball that just got through the infield. He previously had a no-hitter for Cleveland over Washington on June 10, 1966.

The 223 innings he pitched, second high in his career, indicated that Sonny had no problems with the calcium deposits that had plagued him on and off since 1966 and which were removed in a post 1969 operation. With Culp and Peters he's a definite starter for 1971.

He signed with Cleveland as a first baseman-outfielder, after batting .400 in the College World Series for the University of Missouri and being selected third team All-American first baseman. Earlier he had played shortstop in amateur baseball. Became a fulltime pitcher in 1960.

SMITH, Carl Reginald (Reggie) OUTFIELDER

Born: April 2, 1945, Shreveport, La. Ht.: 6'; Wt.: 189 lbs. Brown eyes, Black hair. Bats: Switch; Throws: Right. Home: Sharon, Mass. Married Ernestine Alexander. Children: Reggie Jr. 4/8/68.

For the second year in a row finished among the top 10 hitters in the league, although his homerun and RBI production dropped. Reggie will move over to right field under Eddie Kasko's 1971 plans, where it is felt his great throwing arm will discourage rival runners from taking liberties, and he will also move back into the cleanup spot, where he had a very productive 1969 season.

He starred in both football and basketball at Centennial High in Los Angeles and played Little League baseball with major leaguers Don Wilson and Davey Nelson. Originally an infielder when the Red Sox drafted him from Minnesota, he won the International League batting title in 1966 with Toronto. Reggie is a student of karate and develops prize quarter horses.

TATUM, Jarvis — OUTFIELDER

Born: Oct. 11, 1946, Fresno, Calif. Ht.: 6′; Wt.: 195 lbs. Brown eyes, black hair. Bats and throws: Right. Home: Fresno, Calif. Married Frances Williams. Children: Tammy 11/2/63, Jarvis Jr. 12/12/65, Debra 10/31/66, Stacy 7/30/68.

A year or so ago the Angels attempted to make Jarvis a switch hitter to take advantage of his exceptional speed (9.8 in the 100 as a freshman in high school) and when he batted .347 in the early going for Hawaii last year as a switch hitter, he was recalled by California but used only sparingly the rest of the way, and batted only right.

His minor league credentials show that he was Rookie of the Year in the California League in 1966 and a Texas League All Star in 1968. With Joe Lahoud he'll back up the starting outfield trio for Boston and provide valuable bench strength. Starred in both baseball and track at Edison High.

Born: April 25, 1944, Alexandria, La. Ht.: 6′2″; Wt.: 205 lbs. Blue eyes, Blonde hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Birmingham, Ala. Married Rebecca Ann Wrenn. Children: Kenneth Jr. 11/25/67, Kevin 6/1/70.

He is rated by many as the best right-handed short reliever in the American League and the main reason why the Red Sox should have fewer bullpen problems in 1971. In less than two full major league seasons he shows 39 saves and 14 wins in relief, with a blazing fast ball, and remarkable poise.

A good hitter, Ken played the outfield and pitched all the way up the amateur baseball ladder, until he was a high draft pick of the Angels in June, 1966, after he had won all Southeastern Conference honors before graduating from Mississippi State. Ten members of that Miss. State team were drafted including Del Unser of Washington.

THOMAS, George Edward, Jr. (George) OUTFIELDER

Born: Nov. 29, 1937, Minneapolis, Minn. Ht.: 6′3″; Wt.: 190 lbs. Hazel eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Andover, Mass. Married Diane Lynn May. Children: Leslee 12/8/65, Kristin 9/20/67, Jennifer 1/28/70.

He has to be one of the most valuable utility players in the game, and surprisingly enough the leading Red Sox hitter for the past two seasons. At various times for the Red Sox he has played first base, third base, second base, the outfield and even caught a few games. Showed in 1970 that he was completely recovered from a knee injury which sidelined him most of 1969.

As he has each year, however, George again has to battle younger players to hold his spot on the Red Sox bench in 1971. He originally signed with the Tigers after his sophomore year at the University of Minnesota, where he also played basketball.

WAGNER, Gary Edward (Gary) PITCHER

Born: June 28, 1941, Bridgeport, Ill. Ht.: 6′3″; Wt.: 200 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Scituate, Mass. Married Freddie Jean Jackson. Children: Gary 10/31/63, Sean Anthony (Tony) 4/23/65, Craig 12/28/69.

Recalled from Louisville where he was a starter in late June, he became a valuable addition to the Red Sox bullpen, with seven saves and three wins over the rest of the year. In the minor leagues he always was primarily a starting pitcher, but his major league future seems to be as a long righthanded reliever.

He survived a serious childhood accident to become an outstanding athlete. When he was 12 years old, he was kicked in the face by a startled horse and was unconscious for over a month. For many years a teacher in the off-season in his native Bridgeport, Ill., he moved to Massachusetts after the 1970 season and was employed as a Red Sox public relations assistant.

Born: May 21, 1950, Ottumwa, Iowa. Ht.: 6'1"; Wt.: 190 lbs. Hazel eyes, Brown hair. Bats and throws: Right. Home: Davenport, Iowa. Signed by scout Don Lenhardt, June 18, 1968, after being selected in the June draft. Married Kathy Lee Gugelmeyer. Children: Christine 4/4/69.

Fine future prospect, with a good fast ball, who will need more minor league seasoning. With only a year and a half professional experience, he jumped to Pawtucket, where he found the going a little rough but then showed enough in the Carolina League to earn promotion to the major league roster.

Terry starred in baseball, football and basketball at West High of Davenport before signing.

Again the Red Sox MVP in 1970, as he battled to the final game for his fourth American League batting title, only to lose by .0003 to Alex Johnson. He was also voted MVP of the 1970 All-Star game in Cincinnati. Yaz did a great job at first base most of the 1970 season, but will return to left field in 1971 where he has won five Gold Gloves in his career.

One of the true superstars of the game, his 128 walks tied Harmon Killebrew for second place behind Frank Howard's 132 in 1970, another indication of the respect that rival pitchers have for him. In addition to his other talents he has become one of the best base stealers in the game, with 23 to lead the club last year.

He starred as an infielder in high school and signed after his freshman year at Notre Dame. Later he earned his degree from Merrimack College and is now an associate in a Boston investing firm, director of a bank, and operates his own automobile dealership.

Carl Yastrzemski, who has more walks over the last three years (345) than anyone in baseball, won his third American League slugging crown in 1970 with a .592 average. His other slugging titles were in 1967 (.622) and '65 (.536). Despite increasing his batting average 10 points over the last six games with a 12-for-20 spree, Yaz was nosed out in an attempt for his fourth batting crown. His .3286 average fell .0003 behind the Angels' Alex Johnson.

SPRING TRAINING INVITEES

MAGGARD, Thomas Lee (Tom) — CATCHER

Born: Feb. 7, 1950, San Gabriel, Calif. Ht.: 6′6″; Wt.: 225 lbs. Brown eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right: Home: Norwalk, Calif. Signed by Joe Stephenson, as Red Sox number one draft pick, June, 1968. Single.

An ankle injury suffered in an All-Star basketball game idled him in the 1968 season, but he has developed steadily in his two years in professional baseball, especially in 1970 and now is rated a fine future prospect.

Tom turned down a Southern California basketball scholarship to sign, after leading John Glenn High of Norwalk to several championships. He was a pitcher and catcher in Little League and other junior baseball, but was primarily an outfielder in high school.

SANTIAGO, Jose Rafael (Jose) — PITCHER

Born: Aug. 15, 1940, Juana Diaz, Puerto Rico. Ht.: 6′2″; Wt.: 190 lbs. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: San Juan, Puerto Rico. Married Edna Maria. Children: Alex 11/6/64.

Everyone is rooting for Sandy to come back from two elbow operations in the last two years, and although he threw well enough to win at Louisville and in the Puerto Rican winter league, he has to demonstrate in spring training that he can throw the slider, his "out" pitch, without pain, to make it back.

He has pitched brilliantly at times for the Red Sox, and had racked up nine wins in 1968 in early June before the elbow kicked up. A fine hitting pitcher, he had been plagued with other hard luck earlier in his career when an appendicitis attack in 1963 and a badly sprained ankle in 1964 sidelined him with Kansas City.

He played basketball and baseball at Juana Diaz High and attended Santa Maria University before signing and has dabbled in broadcasting.

Luis Aparicio has played more games at shortstop (2,219) than anyone in history. He wrecked the Red Sox in Fenway in 1970, batting .647, which included five hits in the disastrous 22-13 loss to the White Sox May 31 and two pinch hits, tying a major league record, in an 11-run ninth inning on Aug. 19.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

FREE AGENT DRAFT RULE — A BRIEF SUMMARY: Major League and National Association clubs meet twice a year for the purpose of drafting free agent player talent .... Selection of a free agent entitles the club to the exclusive right of negotiation with that player for a specified period (from date of selection until 15 days prior to next draft meeting).

Approximate dates of draft meetings: Summer (June 10) and Winter (last Saturday of January) . . .

There are two phases to each draft meeting:

(1) Regular Phase — selection of free agents in inverse order of major league standings . . . Limitations on number of selections by each organization at each level: Major League (1), "AAA" (1), "AA" (1), "A" (unlimited) . . . Minor league clubs select in the same relative order as their parent clubs.

(2) Secondary Phase — selection of free agents who had been drafted at a previous meeting, but who were not subsequently signed before the negotiation right expired . . . It is possible for a club to redraft a player whom it had been unable to sign after the original selection, but only with express written consent of that player . . . Order of selection in the secondary phase is determined by lot.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: A game terminated by curfew or by a prearranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed far enough to be an official game (i.e. 4½ or 5 innings) . . .

A game terminated by light failure is a suspended game anytime after it begins.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same ground . . . If this is not possible, other provisions for resumption are specified in American League Regulation 3.8 . . .

A game called at the END of a completed inning AFTER NINE INNINGS for any reason shall now be considered a suspended game and will be resumed at the point of suspension.

TRADING REGULATIONS:

Waiver Requirements	In Effect: From Midnight —	To Midnight —
(Within Own League)
No Waivers Necessary	Last Day of Season	June 15
League Waivers	June 15	Last Day of Season
(Inter-League)
No Waivers (inter-league trading period)	5 Days After End of World Series	December 10
League Waivers (assignor's league	December 10	June 15
Major League Waivers	June 15	Last Day of Season
League Waivers (assignor's league)	Last Day of Season	4 Days After End of World Series

BATTING/PITCHING (ERA) CHAMPION QUALIFICATIONS: 502 or more plate appearances. 162 or more innings.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: To qualify as a Rookie a player may not have spent more than 45 days on a big league roster between cutdown dates (the first day of season and Aug. 31), AND may not have exceeded 90 official at bats or 45 innings pitched at major league level.

SAVE RULE — Credit a save to a relief pitcher who enters the game with his team in the lead if he holds the lead the remainder of the game, provided he is not credited with the victory. A relief pitcher cannot be credited with a save if he does not finish the game, unless he is removed for a pinch hitter or runner. When more than one relief pitcher qualifies for a save under the provisions of this rule, credit the save to the relief pitcher judged by the scorer to have been the most effective. Only one save can be credited in any game.

PLAYER LIMITS — 25 players from opening day through August 31 . . . 40 players from September 1 through end of season . . . Players in military service do not count against the under control list while on active duty. Upon separation from the service, a player will be reinstated to his club's normal player limits after he has completed a 15-day trial period or has participated in a championship game, whichever comes first.

DEFINITION OF NIGHT GAME — Any game scheduled to start after 6 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 6 p.m. and is delayed for any reason, it will be considered a day game. If a game is scheduled to start at 6:01 p.m., it will be considered a night game. Twi-night doubleheaders shall be included in doubleheader statistics and shall be considered two night games. When afternoon and night games (separate admissions) are played on the same date, the games shall be day and night and count as single games.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CURFEW RULE — All night games must be called at 1 a.m. local time. But if an inning is started prior to 1 a.m. city time, it can be completed.
